You Said...	We Did...
Expectations of AEnvCoW: Provide learning, training and resources Webinars: 95.5% had attended webinars Training format: 81.8% wanted us to provide training in the form of webinars 72.7% wanted us to provide training in the form of training events	Ran 'Introduction to the Environmental Clerks of Works' course in February 2024 'Introduction to the Environmental Clerks of Works' will be re-run in November 2024 Webinar programme for remainder 2024 has been released

You Said...	We Did...
Environmental Compliance Concerns: 81.6% answered Yes – They were concerned about the delivery, and monitoring, of environmental compliance during construction	We highlight this figure to stakeholders, such as government agencies and regulators, as well as inform guidance. We have also used it as an evidence base to inform further industry research.

You Said...	We Did...
Training Topics: Auditing Procedure, Pollution Prevention/Water Management, & Soil Peat Management identified as top three topics for training	These topics were a focus for our 'Introduction to the Environmental Clerks of Works' course. The topics are featuring in our webinar programme

You Said...	We Did...
Communication Strategy: Prefer to hear from us via email	Bi-Weekly mailshots and quarterly newsletters via email

You Said...	We Did...
Value for Money: 72.7% thought membership offered value for money, with technical issues mentioned for the website, booking process, and viewing previous webinars	Our website has been revamped to address these issues.